

A Press Release from Way Out Wineries of Texas

For immediate use

Reds, Whites and Bluebonnets along the Way Out Wineries
Wildflower Road Trip May 2nd, 3rd & 4th

The Way Out Wineries will host the 2nd annual Wildflowers Road Trip during the height of bluebonnet season in Central Texas. The eight boutique wineries will welcome ticket holders with a complimentary wine tasting along with a selected wine paired with a pasta dish. Each couple will also receive a pair of Reidel wineglasses at a designated winery. Tickets are $50 per couple or single and may be ordered by calling 325-356-9100 or at www.wayoutwineries.org

The Way Out Wineries are a group of eight boutique wineries located just South of the Metroplex to just North of Austin. Each is located in or near picturesque small towns and each is family owned and operated.

For more information, go to our website at www.wayoutwineries.org.

The pasta dishes to be served include:
Alamosa Wine Cellars...Bend, Texas
Lasagna paired with Texacaia (Sangiovese, Syrah, Temparanillo)
Barking Rocks...Granbury

Pasta Salad with cucumbers, onions, peppers and spices.
Bluff Dale Vineyards...Bluff Dale
Pasta with meat balls paired with Sangiovese or Zinfandel
Brennan Vineyards...Comanche
Three Cheese Pasta with Olives
Pillar Bluff Vineyards...Lampasas
Pulled Pork Pasta paired with "Boar Doe" (Cabernet, Merlot, Malbec)
Red Caboose...Meridian
Southwest Chicken Pasta
Rising Star...Rising Star
Three Cheese Ravioli with Vineyard Marinara Sauce
Texas Legato...Lampasas
Chicken Pasta with Alfredo Sauce

For publication: information 325-356-9100

For more information regarding this press release:

Karen Johnson

512-565-2718

Alamosa Wine Cellars

325-628-3313